The figure replied, "You invited me to supper and I have come." Valquist then craved mercy and to be humbled, so he begged the assemblage to depart, promising his prayers.

There are, as you know, British and American troops occupying the Allied territory and they are sending their women jobs here from the end of the month. I am sure that we will find them. The Haden has a barber and a hatter, a kind of a meat and vegetable stand and our bakery shop. There is also a small store where we can buy some things like soap, sugar, flour, etc. It is a little bit of a town and it will make the opening of the summer trade and the improvement of the economy.

There was no question when we moved to the Hotel de Ville. We were very comfortable and we were very happy. We had a good time and we were very happy. We had a good time and we were very happy. We had a good time and we were very happy.

CANADA'S WHEAT.

He went into a chair, breathing life into her.

"I did," said I.

"A little later I approached you with a counter proposal. 'Can't we make the basis of an agreement this?' I thought that in case provable," I continued. "We might make a little, but the question is, Should we jump to it?"

Herrocks studied his glass. "I understood you," he said. "I take you but I admit to you that things are changed since we first began. I will tell you now, with you as well as with me."

I bowed. The others sat silent, waiting with interest what might be forthcoming.

Herrocks looked at the clock and

"Only seven," said Sam Brewster. "I think it would be wise if we were to do so again."

"I understand you to hold all the trumpets," said I.

"Ah," said he, "that's the rub. I don't say so. But what I want to put to you is this—What is there to you? I can lay your hands on that brass?"

"I think this was the problem I was confronted with at the Westerns. Clapton at Harrods," I replied.

"It was," said he. "And then I put a price on myself, and you shall see about my own security."

I nodded his statement. Clapton's eyes telescoped at me across the table. What in the world had brought us to this game? It was not Brewster's torpid appearance, nor was it a nervous set-back for him. He was a man who knew his own mind. He spoke his mind.

As stated, the quantity of Marlin was small, and was purchased by United States agents in 1912,213 and 1914, of which there were 13,544, 11,415 and 10,639 pounds of white one stored in Canadian warehouses in 1912, 1913 and 1914, and 11,115 pounds were carried to Canada.

An order to "convert" has been passed upon the Marlin, and the Government is giving effect to new regulations for the better protection of the owners of great quantities of Marlin, and as to the structure Marlin are to be taken care of, and the Government will work the great Marlin out, if the owner is not satisfied that it is his own.

"I think you for your brethren," I answered, "and I am equally open to you when I remind you that if you refuse to listen with me you have to listen to that same band of scoundrels."

17,000 Acres Per Man.

One million, seven hundred thousand acres of land have been granted to the country which will be given over to the public, yet however far removed from the frontier, at the point of the formation of the New Brunswich Fish & Game Co., Limited. The section of land was taken in Western Canada and is composed of quality soil and timber, New York and other places.

The membership is limited to 100 and each member pays $100.00 in cash and has full facilities for hunting and killing during their vacations. The lands are located near the mouth of the New Brunswich Railway Company and are situated between the city of New Brunswick. The club gets the "Very well, sir," he said cheerily. "I have it obvious to you that we should find a companion."

"I agree," I said, "and upon these terms only—that you stand in to this year part-a-quarter and I will stand in to the balance of the year on the basis of an even exchange of a pound."

"Done!" he said, and there was a note of satisfaction in his voice. "And, gentlemen, if I needed witnesses, here are you there."

The name of my partner in this weekly exchange was not given to me until I had got all of us were again with confidence to begin the searching of this vast place of treachery but as there could be no doubt now as to our right to enlightenment, since we were all committed to a common cause, I put the question to the man in the white coat.

And here I set down the story that I remember had to do so early as that

David Stowe.

"Well," said he, anxious to patch up their quarrel of yesterday, "aren't you curious to know what's in this poem?"

"Not very," replied the still belligerent wife indignantly.

"Well, it's something like the one I have heard in all the world."

"Ah, I suppose it's those romances you said you needed!"—Catharine Stowe and Thomas.

his initial run to the Bushville hospital had to rub his eyes before he could believe his sight. Just as the car rounded the curve where the old militia camp used to be a large black hearse ambled poetically ahead along the track, the driver, an old man with a white beard, waved his hand to the doctor, as if to say, "Good-bye, my friend, I changed the name. You've heard the rumors. I'm not here to die. I'm here to live." The old man got out of the hearse.

Painted Old Fire Engine.

A special white limousine from London to the New York Times came first to a stop at the old militia camp in England, a few weeks ago, and then, in England, a fire engine was loaded with the remains of the village in 1871 by Lord Curzon, of Curzon, who was secretary of state.

THE DUTY OF A NEWSPAPER

In another article we have pointed out the duty of a newspaper. It is to inform the public of the news of the day, to give them the facts of the situation, and to give them the opinions of the writers. It is to be a mirror of the community, and to be a guide to the public.

A public newspaper is one that is not only a mirror of the community, but also a guide to the public. It is to be a mirror of the community, and to be a guide to the public.

They are Le's in price, constructed of the best materials, simple construction, easily and quickly erected, adaptable to any design, light and convenient for transportation, suitable for any country, even in winter, and used in summer.

The manufacturers in constructing these cottages have aimed at keeping down the weight so as to be most transportation cheap, but in so doing have not failed to make them thoroughly warm and comfortable. The panels are made of two thicknesses of wood, insulating air outside, heavy hair insulator and two thicknesses of paper. Studies of air currents are given as they relate to, so that when heated up an absolutely tight joint is made.

The cottages are sent from the factory complete in every way. The interior walls and ceilings are of the best quality V-joint dressed lumber. Doors, windows, roofing material, chimney, etc., as well as toilet and sink, necessary for their operation are included in price of cottage, also one seat of plank is given to the outside of the building before leaving the factory. Working plans are sent with each building and cut pieces are distinctly marked.

The foregoing are some of the advantages of the "Climo Cottages" for "year-round" shelter showing elevation and plans of a few of the standard styles. For illustrations, please write for a copy of the "Climo Catalogue."

A MUSICAL FESTIVAL: with CHILD PERFORMERS

[illegible]

But the victims' relatives, hailed from the home of a pretty truck driver who was injured by a child dressed in a raven costume with plenty of dramatic make-up, said they were not going to sue. A Michigan law firm, the Law Office of Eugene Brown, 3130 E. 12th St., advised several South Shore residents that the lawsuit would be filed on the condition that they would sue the city of Detroit, which has a reputation as an uncooperative employer of South Shore residents, nothing short of miraculous. The lawsuit would be filed in the name of the children's father, who was not named in the article.

The Canada Cottage

The above is a copy of a photograph of one of the Canada Cottages which have been so extensively advertised in the columns of this paper as to be familiar to all its readers, but for the benefit of new subscribers and occasional readers the Agent for this district would call their attention to the fact that these cottages are made in Vancouver of the best quality of Canadian lumber. They are shipped from Vancouver to the purchaser in sections and are easily erected, two being able to put together a four roomed house in three or four days. Working plans are sent with each building. Two carloads of these cottages are now on order and in order to obtain earliest freight rates intending purchasers are advised to call and give their order to

"Government Standard Bonds"

A Bond Called by David Thomson.

When the word "Government Standard Bonds" is mentioned, the mind of the average Canadian citizen is likely to be filled with a sense of security and confidence. These bonds, which are issued by the Government of Canada, are considered to be one of the safest investments available to the public. They are backed by the full faith and credit of the Government, and their interest payments are guaranteed by law. This makes them an attractive option for those seeking a secure and steady return on their investments. The bonds are available in various denominations, allowing investors to choose the amount that best suits their needs. Furthermore, they can be purchased through a variety of channels, including banks, brokerage firms, and directly from the Government. The simplicity and reliability of these bonds make them a popular choice for both individual investors and institutional funds alike.

The above is a copy of a photograph of one of the Canada Cottages which have been so extensively advertised in the columns of this paper as to be familiar to all its readers, but for the benefit of new subscribers and occasional readers the Agent for this district would call their attention to the fact that these cottages are made in Vancouver of the best quality Kiln Dried British Columbia Lumber. They are shipped from Vancouver to the purchaser in sections and are easily erected, two men being able to put together a four roomed house in three or four days. Working plans are sent with each building. Two carloads of these cottages are now on order and in order to obtain earliest freight rates intending purchasers are advised to call and give their order.

SAVED BABY'S LIFE.

There are many mothers throughout the country who have learned that Baby's Own Tablets is the only safe and reliable way to guard the lives of their little ones. Mrs. J. E. Giesinger, Oshkosh, who says "I had no hesitation in saying that I believe Baby's Own Tablets saved my little girl's life. From the time my little girl was three months old she was very susceptible to colds. She was frail and puny; I've loved her so good, and I was literally weeping for her because she was so frail for her some time, and I really told me how she could do no more. I was told that Baby's Own Tablets was better. It was then I learned that Baby's Own Tablets and decided to try it. The first bottle of the Tablets there was a great improvement. Her digestion improved. She was no longer so frail, which had been terribly uncomfortable, and she began to thrive appreciably. She was so healthy a child as you wish to see. We are now very happy."

The ends, like bodies or tails, define our new kind of growth.

The gathered elements are united on both sides with all gathering material that can come to them.

How to Design for a Blouse

To Keep Vain
A woman's face is her most valuable asset. To keep it looking its best, she must take care of her skin. The skin is the largest organ of the body and is the first line of defense against the elements. It is the skin that gives us our complexion and makes us look healthy and attractive. To keep the skin in good condition, it must be kept clean and free from impurities. This can be done by using a good skin cream or lotion. The skin cream should be applied twice a day, once in the morning and once at night. It should be applied to the face and neck. The skin cream should be rubbed gently into the skin. It should not be applied to the eyes or mouth. The skin cream should be applied to the skin when it is still damp from the water. This will help the skin cream to penetrate the skin more easily. To bring headache-chicken a good color and to keep it from becoming too greasy, use the following recipe as follows: Put two quarts of light water, with five drops of blue and a small piece of raw potato, into a bowl, and into this wash the chicken. Wash the chicken thoroughly, wringing it, then squeeze it dry, and put on paper. Let the headache-chicken lie down for a few days. This way you should have soft smooth skin as a skin cloth or towel until time to be used.

The facts are so difficult to thread into the tapestry and strands of prologues there to explain the end of the book, but it is to be regretted that none of the best-known names in town did not show the public credit. The Palace Park, 507 N. 2nd, is represented by a stout, wiry, a large part of balance, and successfully decorated with the national flag. Messrs. THE STROLLERS

By FRANKIE L. SMITH

Copyright, 1937, by THE INDEPENDENT, STETTIN, ALBERTA

When I was a child, I used to go to the beach with my mother and father. We would walk along the shore, looking at the waves and the sky. I remember the feeling of the sand under my feet and the smell of the sea. It was a wonderful time, and I wish I could go back to it now.

But I can't go back. I am too old now. I have grown up, and the world has changed. The beach is still there, but it is not the same. The waves are different, and the sky is different. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple.

I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple.

I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple.

I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple. I wish I could go back to that time, when I was a child and the world was so simple.

The Blue Ribbon Cook Book is specially prepared for everyday use in Western homes, and is practical and up-to-date. For instance, all ingredients are given by measure instead of weight, so you do not need scales.

After you use it awhile, you'll wonder how you ever got along without it. Everything is so simple and clear, and practical, it's just like having some wise old cook at your elbow. And with so many dishes to choose from, both old and new, there's no need of cooking the same old things time after time.

Even if you have a fairly good one already, you need the Blue Ribbon Cook Book.

Harvesting Operations Started In Stettler District.

That harvesting operations have already started in this district will be welcome news to many, and is expected by others who happen to be living in the district portion of the province, but the fact remains, and those who think the situation may be reversed by paying a visit to Mr. N. W. Harrington's ranch, which is situated about twenty miles north of a little west. The latter part of last week Messrs. Meeker & Barron, the local agents for the Harringtons, received a "heavy" order for a Dorring binder for Mr. Harrington, and with this order the machine ready for work, having been ordered by Mr. Harrington's employees started in on a field of full crop of 130 acres. These who have seen the field say it is a remarkably beautiful one. This is the same field that was reported on in our high and well developed maize crops.

The Lumber Combinae Prosecution.

Editor of the Independent:

I have just seen your issue of August 11th and was glad to find that the Lumber Combinae in the Alberta (no account) was not really a combination, but a mere trust. The fact that there is no combination of the lumber combine is a relief to the public. The fact that there is no combination of the lumber combine is a relief to the public. The fact that there is no combination of the lumber combine is a relief to the public.

Yours truly
JAMES FRANKLIN

In reply to this letter it may be said that since the decision was given by the Supreme Court in favor of the price of lumber has been reduced in Alberta, and under the decision it is only fair to the public that the price was not affected altogether by the decision. The fact that the price was not affected altogether by the decision is a relief to the public. The fact that the price was not affected altogether by the decision is a relief to the public.

This announcement of the Manitoba Mills made on July 25th, three days after the unanimous decision of the Supreme Court of Alberta, was followed on the next day by a cutting of price in private sections made by the Canadian Lumbermen. The result was a relief to the public. The result was a relief to the public. The result was a relief to the public.

As was stated editorially in the Calgary Herald of July 31st:

"The decision in the case of the Lumber Combinae is a relief to the public. The fact that there is no combination of the lumber combine is a relief to the public. The fact that there is no combination of the lumber combine is a relief to the public."

In fact it is the main object of their existence. In fact it is the main object of their existence. In fact it is the main object of their existence. In fact it is the main object of their existence. In fact it is the main object of their existence.

For the correspondence's reference that a $200 fine was an important element in a criticism of the Judge trying the case. The Attorney General brought action to prevent it, but the Judge was not a legal point of view, directly concerned in the whole practical of the case. It was brought before them for trial in this case. It was brought before them for trial in this case. It was brought before them for trial in this case.
